COMMERCIAL. Monetary.

In monetary affairs this week, there has been more activity. The demand for money has been greater, though the rates remain unchanged The Banks are discounting quite freely, ed the freely, is way to the street. In New York, the evidences of accumulated unemployed capital increase, and interest rules lower. Call loans on Government securities have run as low as 24, mainly, however, to 3 and 31. First-class busimain) to 5 p cent.; secondclass 6 to 7. Considerable investments in the tew Government loan have been made for foreign account. In London, at last advices, in egn account of four millions of dollars in gold and silver had arrived from Australian and South American ports. This kept up the sock market there, which had previously grown some signs of a want of buoyancy.
